Art Community Reaches out with "Art Collecting 101" Clyfford Still Museum & Artwork Network Host Free Event at SPIRE

(Denver) SPIRE, Denver's best-selling high-rise living community, is set to host a panel and discussion for area art enthusiasts during Denver Arts Week. This free event, sponsored by Artwork Network and the Clyfford Still Museum's 1944 Society, aims to educate new and aspiring collectors, as well as offer a chance to explore, experience, and enjoy SPIRE's luxurious amenities.

Guests can expect to learn tips and advice about collecting art from some of the most respected members of Denver's art community. Each of the knowledgeable speakers will offer varied perspectives to new and aspiring collectors on how to critique, acquire, and care for artwork. A tour will immediately precede the panel discussion to allow guests to see theory in play, above the Denver Skyline on Spire 38th floor.

Several paintings by Artwork Network artists, Tadashi Hayakawa (Parker, Colorado) and Michael Moon (Los Angeles, California), will be featured.. This event marks the beginning of Artwork Network's new Art Rotation services for the SPIRE. Every 90 days a new selection of artwork will be on view for current and prospective residents of this luxury community.

The event will be held on Thursday November 8, 2012 from 5:30pm to 7:30pm in the 9th Floor lounge at SPIRE, located at 891 14th Street in downtown Denver. Tours of the units will occur from 5:30-6:30 pm with the panel starting at 6:45 pm. Guests will enjoy complimentary beer, wine, and appetizers, and will have the opportunity to enter to win exciting raffle items. The event is free to the public. Space is limited. To RSVP visit www.clyffordstillmuseum.org and select member programs or call (720) 354-4871 to make your reservation today.
